

EPA to Hold January 30 Information Session on Biota Study, Community Plan

RINGWOOD MINES/LANDFILL SUPERFUND SITE

WHEN: TUESDAY, JANUARY 30TH

WHERE: RINGWOOD MUNICIPAL BUILDING
COURT ROOM

TIME: 6:30 PM

- Representatives from EPA, New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection, the federal Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry and New Jersey Department of Health and Senior Services will be available to discuss the initial results of the biota study conducted at the Ringwood Mines Superfund site in Ringwood, N.J.
- EPA staff will discuss current agency efforts to strengthen community participation at the Ringwood site.
- EPA will also update residents and concerned citizens on the ongoing work at the site as well as planned future work.
- For additional information, please contact Pat Seppi, EPA's Community Involvement Coordinator at (646) 369-0068.